

Grants awarded under the “Veterans Places, Pathways and People programme: Portfolio grants”

Grants totalling £7,898,456 to 10 organisations

Name	Project Title	Region / Country	Project Summary	Grant Amount
St John & Red Cross Defence Medical Welfare Service (DMWS)	Veterans Mental Health Support Midlands	Midlands	Defence Medical Welfare Service are proud to be working with fantastic partners to ensure clear pathways for Veterans of all ages and backgrounds to access the support and guidance they need for better mental health and safe places to meet friends, to learn and enjoy activities and time together.	£799,800
Broughton House Home for Ex-Service Men and Women	NW Armed Forces Wellbeing Network	North West	Broughton House will convene the North West Armed Forces Wellbeing Network uniting organisations, professionals and volunteers supporting the Armed Forces community and ensure quality delivery of statutory and third sector services to veterans. This will be underpinned by key pillars; Governance, Monitoring & Evaluation, Sustainability, Training and the Veterans’ Voice.	£740,000
Adferiad Recovery	V4P Wales	Wales	Adferiad Recovery will work collaboratively with a wide range of partners across Wales to ensure the sustainable provision of places of safety and pathways of support for veterans, supported by people who are sufficiently trained and skilled and empathetic and understanding of veterans’ needs.	£795,000
The Bridge for Heroes	Project Sunrise	East of England	The Bridge For Heroes Charity will lead a portfolio that will assisting vulnerable veterans in their time of need; working collaboratively with partners across the Eastern region.	£797,000
Veterans Outreach Support	Partnership in Mind	South East	The ‘Partnership in Mind’ portfolio will develop an inclusive, collaborative and effective network across the Op Courage SE region with the common goal of improving the lives of veterans in need in support of the AFCFT Veterans’ Places, Pathways and People Programme.	£787,976

Invictus Games Foundation	Brighter Futures for Veterans	South West	Invictus Games Foundation will build upon existing relationships with organisations across the South West region, many having been supported historically by the Organisation, creating a portfolio that offers an efficient, scalable model of support for veterans that addresses mental health needs while creating effective treatment pathways nationwide	£799,841
TANVALLEY & ANAGHLONE PROJECT	Northern Ireland's Vital Veterans Network	Northern Ireland	The grantholder will work with NIVSO. The Northern Ireland's Vital Veterans' Network will work to ensure that existing veteran support network is utilised to maximum effect by further empowering delivery organisations, veterans and volunteers to thrive, through new, vital and innovative mental health delivery which uses the skills of our people to maximum effect.	£800,000
Poppy Factory	Better Together: London Veterans' Partnership	London	The Poppy Factory will bring together its expertise in supporting veterans with mental health needs with other organisations in London to: develop a network of welcoming, inclusive 'places'; open up support pathways, including into and out of Op Courage; and to provide a legacy of collaboration delivering lasting, joined-up support.	£799,062
NHS Lothian	The Scottish Veterans Wellbeing Alliance	Scotland	The Scottish Veterans Wellbeing Alliance will provide spaces and places across Scotland where veterans and families can connect, receive and provide support, learn new skills and benefit from activities delivered by a compassionate workforce striving to nurture relationships with all who have an interest in veterans' health and wellbeing.	£800,000
Sporting Force	VPPP North East and Yorkshire	North East & Yorkshire	Sporting Force build a network of projects that will work regionally to develop lasting, sustainable support for veterans with mental health needs. Working with established organisations geographically spread to ensure each veteran can reach a safe place and access the help and support they require.	£779,777

Total £7,898,456